

The Petitioner seeks review of a disciplinary proceeding which occurred on February 23, 2021 at Caledonia Correctional Institution, in which the Petitioner received 30 days restrictive housing. [Id. at 1]. The Petitioner also seeks the restoration of 120 sentence reduction credits and for this Court to vacate the disciplinary conviction. [Id. at 15].

A claim for credit against a sentence attacks the computation and execution of the sentence rather than the sentence itself and must therefore be brought in the district of confinement rather than the district of the sentencing court. United States v. Miller, 871 F.2d 488, 490 (4th Cir. 1989). See also McBride v. United States, 2019 WL 1992143, *1 (W.D.N.C. May 6, 2019).

Petitioner is presently incarcerated at Albemarle Correctional Institution in New London, North Carolina, which is located in the Middle District of North Carolina. [Doc. 1]. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 2241(d) and the joint order of the United States District Courts for the Eastern, Middle and Western Districts of North Carolina (See Joint Order, In re: Applications for Writs of Habeas Corpus (Oct. 26, 1966), the Court shall transfer this action to the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina. This Court has not conducted an initial review of the petition and makes no observation as to its merits or timeliness.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that:

1. This action is transferred to the Middle District of North Carolina for further proceedings, including ruling on any pending motions.
2. The Clerk is instructed to terminate this action.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
